GREENSBORO TELEGRAM.

VOL. VII. NO. 57. GREENSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1900. Price Five Cents

A RECKLESS CORRESPONDENT.

SENDS HIS PAPER FALSE STATEMENT.

Says the Insurance Companies and Piano Dealers of Greensboro are Doing Business Contingent Upon the Election of a Republican President—No Foundation for the Report, Which is Denied by the Parties Referred To.

A big piano concern here is selling goods with the promise that they will not be delivered if McKinley is not elected. Insurance companies here are writing policies upon the same condition.

The above statement would be very amusing were it not so palpably false. Of course no one, including the falsifier who sent the dispatch, will believe for a moment that the piano dealers and insurance companies of Greensboro are doing business contingent upon the election of McKinley or any one else. The business concerns of this city are not so shaky as that.

But just for the amusement of the thing The Telegram has talked with some of the insurance people and music dealers of Greensboro in regard to the matter. Not one of them knew anything of the dispatch to the Asheville paper until their attention was called to it, when it was promptly and vehemently denied. A piano dealer said: "So far as my business is concerned, I do not know that it makes any difference who is elected. I shall continue to sell pianos and organs whether McKinley or Bryan may be President. Certainly I never thought of selling an instrument with the understanding that the trade should be null and void in the event of the election of McKinley" An insurance man made practically the same statement and added that he was unable to understand how any newspaper correspondent could be guilty of so wilful a perversion of the truth.

So it is plain that the Gazette correspondent, in his desire for a sensational "scoop," overreached himself in sending out a statement that was false on its face.

HIGH POINT'S ELECTION.

Believed That the Bond Issue Will be Carried This Time.

High Point's bond election for a system of waterworks comes off next Tuesday, and the indications are that it will be carried this time. In speaking of the matter, a High Point gentleman said sentiment had changed wonderfully since the late disastrous fire in that place. He expressed himself as believing that the proposition would receive a good majority this time.

If the bond issue should be defeated it is believed that the Board of Aldermen will grant a franchise to a private company to install a waterworks system.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Society Looking Forward With Pleasure to Fair Week.

Next week will be a lively one in Greensboro socially as well as in other respects. In addition to receptions by some of the secret orders and a number of private entertainments, the club rooms of the Merchants and Manufactures Association will be thrown open three nights.

On Tuesday night there will be a dance, a reception by the club Wednesday night, and the marshal's ball, the closing event of the week, on Friday night.

Mr. Wyche at Concord.

Concord Times.

Mr. R. T. Wyche was here a part of last week and this. He visited the graded schools and gave a talk on Bible characters which was very interesting and eagerly listened to by the children. On Sunday afternoon he made a talk to the children in Central Methodist church, taking for his subject the life of Christ. Mr. Wyche is pleasantly remembered here as being secretary of the Y. M C. A.

Returned From Niagara.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Stone and Prof. P. P. Claxton have returned from Niagara Falls, where they went on an excursion operated by the North Carolina Press Association. On their return they stopped in New York and Washington.

MR. DODSON'S DEATH.

End of a Bright Young Life—Funeral This Afternoon.

Mr. Will C. Dodson, who was reported in a dying condition when The Telegram went to press at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, died an hour later. When he was paralyzed some weeks ago it was thought that he would recover, but he improved very slowly, and a week ago began to grow worse.

Mr. Dodson was about 33 years old and for a number of years had been in the service of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway, later the Southern.

Several years ago he was married to Miss Allen, of Fayetteville, who, with two lovely young children, survives.

The funeral was held from the family residence, on East Market street, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the service being conducted by Rev. J. C. Rowe. The deceased was a member of Cross Creek Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., of Fayetteville, and was buried with the honors of the order, the members of Buena Vista Lodge, No. 21, of this city, acting as an escort.

NOW FACING THE SERIOUS SIDE

MINERS APPLY FUR PROVISIONS

Fourteen Thousand Men Ask President Mitchell for Help—Situation Unchanged. Only Here and There a Little Work Going on and Shipments are Almost Entirely Suspended—Coal Sold in Advance.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Wilkesbarre, Oct. 4.—The strike situation here is unchanged. No strikers have returned to work, and no company has sent in any communication to their employes regarding the offer of ten per cent. advance. The west end mine at Mosanaqua is now the only mine in the entire region working full handed and every ton mined is sold in advance. The strikers face the seriousness of the strike for the first time. The general counsel of this city, representing twenty-three local unions, having 14,000 members, have applied to President Mitchell for supplies for the men and this afternoon Mitchell will hold a conference with them regarding the best plan to distribute food at Pottsville. All the Reading mines of this county are now tied up. The Lincoln colliery, the last to hold out, failed to resume this morning. Reading has but one colliery going. North Eranklin at Treverton, producing about fifty cars daily, will likely survive the strike. Coal is becoming scarce, and shipments are nearly suspended.

MITCHELL'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

President Mitchell yesterday issued the following statement:

"To the Miners and Mine Workers of the Anthracite Region:

"We have just been informed that the report has been circulated at Ashland to the effect that in a conference at New York this morning between the coal presidents and myself, an agreement was reached which will end the strike.

"I desire to notify all mine workers that the report is incorrect and that I have not been in conference with the presidents of the coal companies and have made no agreement with them. I wish to reiterate what I said several days ago, that there would be no settlement of the strike until a convention of the anthracite miners is held. You are further requested to pay no attention to the statements of this kind and to continute the strike until such convention, when you will be regularly notified of the date and place at which the convention will be held."

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Five and Ten Cent Stores Something New in the Mercantile Line.

The five and ten cent store to be opened here by the Kugler Syndicate, under the management of Mr. Fuller L. Reid, is a new departure in the mercantile business in this section. Almost every conceivable article, except groceries, will be sold, not more than ten cents being charged for anything.

These stores are being operated in Richmond, Roanoke, Raleigh and other places.

Mr. Reid hopes to have the Greensboro store open by the first week in November.

PLUCKY EXPRESS MESSENGER.

NEATLY DONE UP TRAIN ROBBERS.

Robbers Mounted the Tender, Covered Engineer and Fireman With Pistols and Proceeded to Dynamite the Express Car. Messenger Hid Himself and Killed One Robber and Ran the Other One Off.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct 4.—An express car on the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluff Railroad brought in today the dead body of a train robber and turned it over to the police of this city. The robber had been riddled with bullets by Express Messenger Charles Baxter, in charge of the car, at the very moment he was successtully dynamiting the car. The train was held up three miles from the city, as it ran under a covered bridge over Mosquito creek. The robbers climbed on the tender and covered the engineer and fireman. The forward end of the train was run half a mile ahead but the express messenger refused to open the door. Two charges of dynamite were placed at the door. The engineer was compelled by a revolver to touch off the first charge, which was unsuccessful. The fireman was then compelled to fire the second charge. This blew the car door open, and one robber climbed into the car and prepared to blow the safe open. Baxter concealed himself on the opposite side of the car in the weeds and waiting an opportunity to shoot the robber, fired six shots, all taking effect. Then springing out of concealment he attempted to shoot the other robber, but the latter escaped.

DEATH OF WALTER HOLTON.

Came Home From Virginia About Three Weeks Ago With Fever—High Point Marriage.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

High Point, Oct. 4.—The death angel visited the home of one of our citizens yesterday and claimed as its victim Walter Holton, aged 18 years. He had typhoid fever. About three weeks ago he came home from Virginia, on account of sickness, where he had been employed in a furniture factory.

The funeral services occurred this morning, conducted by Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk, of the Methodist Protestant church, and the remains were interred in the cemetery at Springfield church, near here. Deceased has a large number of relatives and friends in this community. Walter was a member of the C. M. A., which was organized here this year.

'Squire J. M. Sechrest was the officiating magistrate at a marriage here Tuesday. The contracting parties were Mr. Eugene Crooker and Miss Myrtle Jones. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride.

Liveryman R. B. White lost a horse by disease this week. It was a full-blooded animal and the loss to Mr. White is to be deplored.

Mr. J. L. Banner, of Mt. Airy, a former resident of this place, is in town on business.

Messrs A. B. Sapp and W. C. Jones went to Danville this morning to attend the carnival.

P. L. Manfield, of Lexington, was a visitor last evening.

C. M. Hauser, assistant cashier of the Commercial National Bank, is at his home in Yadkin College, on account of a slight indisposition.

Dr. W. J. McCaually has sold to Mr. J. A. Clinard the store building occupied by Mr. J. H. Petty.

Mr. C. N. Rothrock represented Winston-Salem here yesterday.

Tuesday the people of High Point vote on bonds for water works. From present indications the issue will be carried by a good majority.

Your correspondent learns that the American Telephone Company will establish an office here at an early date.

A Scaffold Falls and Injures a Workman.

Early this morning, while six men were at work on a scaffold at the new City Hall building, the scaffolding gave way, throwing three of the men to the floor, thirteen feet below. A young white man, named Willis, was among those who fell, and besides being frightened out of several years' growth, received a slight scalp wound and a bad cut on the hand.

Three of the men heard the timber breaking and had time to catch on the wall.

MR. BRYAN'S WORK YESTERDAY.

Waukesha, Wis., Oct. 3.—Mr. Bryan today made less than half a dozen speeches and traveled by easy stages from Portage City to this place, speaking only at Portage, Columbus, Watertown, Oconomowoo and Waukesha. He said tonight that he would give the 8th and 9th of this month to Illinois, the 10th and 11th to Michigan, and the 12th, 13th, and 15th to Ohio. He will go direct from Cleveland to New York. At Portage, Mr. Bryan took up the question of taxation. He said:

"Unjust taxation simply transfers money from one man's pocket to another's, and is larcency perpetuated by law, and, do you know, my friends, as I have studied government and the policies of government, I have made up my mind that the stealing done by those in the penitentiary is not so great as the stealing that is done by unjust law? You may think that is a strong statement, but just remember that the number of men in the penitentiary is small compared with the population."

THE MILL MEN SERVE NOTICE

WILL NOT EMPLOY UNION LABOR

A Noticce Posted at Every Mill in Alamance County Notifying All Union Operatives to Either Withdraw From the Organization or Vacate the Company's Premises After October 15th—Determined to Destroy the Unions.

Some of the cotton mill owners in this section of North Carolina are adopting drastic measures to guard against what they consider the harmful effects of labor organizations among their employes. So rapid has been the growth of these organizations that the operatives of nearly all the mills are now embraced in the membership of the National Textile Union. The mill men say these unions have a tendency to destroy the harmonious and peaceable relations previously existing between employer and employe, and hence they are determined to break up the organizations at all hazards.

On the other hand, the operatives say it is not the purpose of the union to make trouble, the primary object being mutual co-operation and assistance. Be that as it may, there have been disturbances at a number of places where unions existed. The Telegram yesterday told of the shutting down of all the Haw River mills, where practically all the operatives are members of a strong union.

Desiring to take the best method of destroying the influence of the unions, the cotton mill men of Alamance county held a conference and discussed the situation. The conference resulted in an agreement to close the mills against all union labor, after giving due notice. The following notice is now posted at every mill in the county:

"Whereas, recent developments have shown that this mill cannot be operated with that harmony between the owners and the operatives thereof, which is essential to success and the interest of all concerned, so long as the operatives are subject to interference by outside parties, this is to give notice that, on and after the 15th day of October, this mill will not employ any operatives who belong to a labor union, but will be run by non-union labor only. All operatives who object to the above and will not withdraw from labor unions will please consider this a notice to vacate, on or before the 15th day of October, any house or premises belonging to us which they now occupy."

Roosevelt to Speak from McKinley's Porch

Canton, O., Oct. 3.—It is announced that Governor Roosevelt will come to Canton on the morning of October 18, for a 30-minute stay. In that time he will make a speech from the McKinley porch, while his train is being transferred from one railroad to another. It is probable that the President will introduce him.

REGISTRARS ARE TO BE TRIED.

GRAND JURY RETURNS TRUE BILLS.

Six Democratic Registrars, in Forsyth, Montgomery and Burke Counties, to Stand Trial in the Federal Court for Refusing to Allow Negroes to Register for the August Election—Strenuous Efforts Will be Made to Secure Convictions.

It begins to look as if the Democratic registrars, indicted for refusing to register negroes for the late election, would be tried in the Federal Court, and probably convicted. Before the noon recess of court today the grand jury returned bills against the following persons charged with the "deprivation of rights guaranteed by the constitution of the United States:"

Hunter L. Wall and J. T. Thompson, of Winston; W. L. Roper and R. O. Fry, of Montgomery county, and J. A. Perry and William Powell, of Burke county.

The indictments are all alike, being in printed form, with blanks for names, dates, etc. These indictments were printed in large numbers for use all over the State and are said to have been prepared by Marion Butler. The indictments set forth that on the first Thursday in August, 1900, an election for Governor and other State officers and for members of the General Assembly was held at each voting precinct in North Carolina, and that the registrars unlawfully and wilfully refused to allow the persons named in the bill to register for the said election.

The bill against Mr. J. T. Thompson, of Winston, is the longest in the bunch, containing 24 pages of printed matter. He is charged with having refused to allow the following negroes to register: W. T. Pettiford, Jesse Mitchell, Lewis Hege, W. H. Mebane, James Bynum, Mack Leath, Horace Jeffreys, Charles Duffy, Glenn Hairston, Thomas Hairiston, Jacob Glenn, John H. Dandridge, Zack Graves, Robert M. Goins, James Gunn, W. H. Neal, William Mendenhall, Lee Hairston, John Lewis, Charles B. Hairston, Sanford Banks, Vance Rowland, Thomas Anderson and Robert Richardson.

Mr. Wall is charged with refusing to allow twelve negroes to register, Mr. Roper, four; Mr. Perry, seven; Mr. Fry, seven, and Mr. Powell, nine.

All the negroes who were refused registration, and a number of others, are here for the purpose of testifying against the registrars.

The cases will not be called before tomorrow. The greaatest interest is manifested in the matter, and it is known that the most strenuous efforts will be made to secure convictions. It is the one comfort that District Attorney and ex-Chairman Holton can get out of the result of the late election. If the registrars are convicted they may be heavily fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court.

* * *

Business has been moving briskly since court got down to work Tuesday, over 30 cases on the criminal docket having been disposed of.

Today John N. Garrett and Martin Culler were acquitted of retailling. T. E. Cuthrell, a distiller of Yadkin county, was also acquitted of defrauding the government by making false returns, false entries, etc. J. Frank Thornton, of Yadkin county, was charged with illicit distilling and retailing, but the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Several other cases were dismissed and nol prossed.

Yale Students Arrested.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 4.—Yale students and authorities had a clash last night. The police were forced to raid the freshmen row, and two students were arrested. They are Charles Earlmoore, son of the collector of the port of Chicago, and Charles F. Alexander, of Honolulu.

S. A. L. LAYING 80-POUNDERS.

STATE STILL GRANTING LANDS.

This Year 241 Have Been Issued—Very Active National Campaign Being Arranged for in This State—Smallpox Case. Opening Game of Football—Mental Anguish Suits.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 4—Sixteen miles of 80-pound rail have thusfar been delivered along the line of the Seaboard Air Line, from here towards Hamlet, and a large force is laying it. Later this rail will be put down all the way to Hamlet. The Seaboard Air line is also building at Hamlet a large passenger station and offices.

St. Paul's African M. E. church here, begun in 1884, will be completed this month. It will seat 1800 persons, and its cost is about $30,000, of which white people have contributed a large part. The building is of brick and is imposing.

The Willard hose mill here is now turning out 300 dozen a day, and employing 125 persons. Half its looms have been replaced by ones making much finer goods.

Secretary Pearsall of the Democratic State committee says a very active National campaign is now being arranged in this State; that he has made appointments for speeches by C. B. Aycock, Wilfred Turner, T. J. Jarvis, D. H. McLean, Lee S. Overman, B. F. Dixon, Thomas G. Skinner, F. M. Simmons and others, and that the 97 sub-electors, one in each county, are expected to do a great work.

The Corporation Commission was to have had a session yesterday, but it is postponed until next week. At it the matter of freight rates is to be discussed, it appears.

Secretary Brown, of the Corporation Commission, says there has been but little railway construction since June 1, which was the date of the last report. Cestainly there has been but little track laying.

A drizzle of rain for the past two days has stopped cotton picking, but does not hurt the cotton. Most cotton growers are saying "one more picking will finish my crop."

The State Historical Society, recently formed, is endeavoring to arrange a program for a meeting during the State Fair, October 22-27.

Adjutant-General Royster says the increased quota for this State, $25,000, from the general government became due July 1, and that very nearly all of it has been drawn, in the shape of arms, clothing, tentage, etc., for the State Guard. All the tents are now equipped. There is tentage and camp equipage for a regiment, and also blankets and overcoats, 500 each, in the arsenal, but none of these will be issued save to troops under orders. The Guard has increased in numbers during this year. The Legislature will be memoralized to increase the appropriation, which is now only $16,000 a year. The inspections for this year are nearly completed. Not until they are completed will the exact strength of the force be known.

The issue of land grants by the State does not abate much. So far this year 241 have been issued. In 1885 the use of numbers began and strange to say, started with 7,000. Why that arbitrary number was used, no one living now knows. The last number is 14,297, so that in fifteen-years 7,279 grants have been issued. During century preceeding that date there were scores of thousands of them. Even the index fills a number of large books. Then there were no numbers, and only the date and the county were used in classfying.

A Petersburg negro was found here yesterday afternoon with smallpox and was hurried to the pest house, which had been without occupants since last spring.

The State charters the Acme Machine Company, of Goldsboro, with $15,000 capitol.

Next Friday at the fair grounds the opening football game of the season occurs between the A. & M. College and the Bingham School at Mebane.

Two "mental anguish" damage suits against the Western Union telegraph company have been instituted here

During September the number of deaths and of births in Raleigh was the same—27. Sixteen cases of typhoid fever and one of scarlet fever are the only contagous diseases reported during the month. The death rate per 1,000 is 16 anuually.

The Republican committee of this Congressional district will meet here tomorrow to choose an electoral candidate.

The camp of Confederate Veterans here will next week give at the Soldiers' Home a reception to the State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. F. A. Woodward, of Wilson, formerly Mrs. W. H. Hollman, of Raleigh, gives $1,000 to the Methodist Orphanage here.

THE FAIR ALLIES OF BRYAN.

THE WOMEN ESPOUSE HIS CAUSE.

A Unique Organization of the Feminine Sex in Washington—Account of a Meeting With Novel Features—Opened With a Conundrum, Which is Answered by a Man in the Audience.

Washington Post, 3rd.

The Woman's Bryan Anti-War and Anti-Trust Club held a meeting at 7 o'clock last night at the headquarters of the Democratic Association, 904 Pensylvania avenue. The meeting, which opened informally, was presided over by Mrs. Park Morrill, a cousin of Gov. Roosevelt, and a neice of the late Senator Morrill. She wore a white lace gown, trimmed with rosettes of black velvet, with a large headdress of black ostrich feathers. She is both secretary and treasurer of the club, which was organized last Tuesday night under the undefatigable Mrs. S. F. Norton, a member of the New York Press Club, and the Manhattanville Liberal Club. The other officers are Mrs. Rosalind Keech, of North Carolina, president; Mrs. Blair Gordon, of Virginia, first vice-president, and Miss Rebecca Chapman, second vice-president. Mrs. Norton is the organizer and chief promoter.

The hall was blilliantly decorated with flags, festooned over the doorway and the windows, while two pictures of Bryan and Stevenson graced the wall in the rear of the platform.

"I don't know anything about politics myself," said Mrs. Morrill before the meeting, "but I do think we women have a right to express our opinions, don't you?" She carried a Bible in her little ringed hand. "Now, don't think I am a religious crank," she hastily interposed, "but I always like to carry the word of the Lord into every place I go, and I do not think it is out of place tonight. I can leave it here for the men, you know, and it won't do any harm."

OPENED WITH A CONUNDRUM.

The meeting did not come to order until some time after the hour designated, and a sort of introduction to the proceedings, Mrs. Morrill naively asked:

"What is the difference between Buffalo Bill and McKinley?"

A pause ensued, then a voice from the audience replied: "One has a show and one hasn't."

"That is good," commented Mrs. Morrill, whereupon Mrs. Norton stood up, and with determined accents announced the aims, purposes, and principles of the organization.

"If there is anything that is imperialism," she said, "it is the condition which exists in the departments in Washington today. Not a clerk is free to express his opinions. Whenever I walk down the street even I am nudged by my companions to refrain from expressing my opinions, which they seem to fear will be heard. What we want in this country is the freedom of our ideas, the free, untrammeled expression of our opinions, and that is the reason we want Bryan. We are for one man for one term—listen to that—one man for one term in order to prevent hatching of schemes, the furthering of plots, trust, and combinations. You see if a man is in for only one term he hasn't got the time for mischief."

There was a slight digression from the strict order of business, one of the gentlemen from the audience rising, and, amid profound silence, and with oratorical emphasis, asking:

"Did it ever occur to you," addressing the Chair and Mrs. Norton, "that to-day it is just exactly sixteen and one years that William Jennings Bryan has been married?"

"Is it possible!" ejaculated Mrs. Morrill.

PRINCIPLES OF THE CLUB.

"What a coincidence!" exclaimed another lady present.

Mrs. Norton then proceeded to further expound the platform upon which the Woman's Bryan Anti-War and Anti-Trust Club rested. "It is to prevent the concentration of wealth," she declared, "to abolish war and the causes of war. War results in the brutality of men and the immorality of women, and is a menace to further generations. In view of these evils it is resolved that we agree to band ourselves together to the end and for the purposes of helping the election of William Jennings Bryan, the man of no war, no trust, no combinations of capital for crowding out the poor, no contempt or ignoring of the Constitution, no truckling to or joining hands with foreign powers, no annexation of territory where the flag and the Constitution do no go hand in hand. We are for Bryan (applause), that humane, steadfast, consistent, and incorruptible—underline that that—incorruptible patriot, the candidate of the Democratic party, and when you have said patriot you have said all."

Again a gentleman in the audience arose.

"What you women want," he stated, "is to know what your politics are. You don't want to be having to ask your husbands every time whether you are a Democrat or a Republican, do you?"

"We consider no questions of that sort," replied Mrs. Norton.

A CAMPAIGN SONG.

Mrs. Norton then read a poem of her own composition which she had intended to have sung to the air of "The Wearing of the Green." She had invited members of the Salvation Army to furnish music, but they failed to appear. The poem is entitled "Bryan's the Boy," the first verse being as follows:

If of food you would have plenty, and your coal at decent price,
With good clothing for your family that you do not pay for twice,
With no danger of "reductions" and no waiting for your pay,
Then your only chance is voting for the man upon the way.

CHORUS.

To the White House on his way
Is your savior William J.,
And the routing of the rascals
Who so long have held their sway.
(Repeat chorus to fit the air.)

Mrs. Norton unfolded to a representative of The Post some of her plans and ambitions regarding the club.

"We have no axes to grind," she said, "I wish that firmly impressed upon those here present; furthermore, that we work for humanity's sake. This club is formed with the Bryan idea paramount until we become fully organized, and it is then my intention to develop it into a humane society.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses the One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croups and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

A THOUSAND TONGUES.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. Kings' New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. THURSDAY OCTOBER. 4, 1900.

VOTING 'ER STRAIGHT.

It used to be quite the thing in North Carolina to talk before the election of how the colored voters and other Republicans in good standing were going back on their ticket on election day. But when that crucial day rolled round it was certain to be observed that these folks marched up with unvarying regularity and "voted 'er straight." In national politics this year we have had something of the same occurrence on a larger scale. Away back when the anti-imperialist campaign was begun one Mr. Andrew Carnegie was frantic on the subject, and if we are not mistaken, announced his intention to vote for Mr. Bryan. It was even said that he was about to pay Mr. Bryan's full expenses and request him to put in his whole time in speaking against the threatened danger. Now Mr. Carnegie is preparing to "vote 'er straight" as heretofore. A few months ago Senator Hoar was trying to make the country see the yawning chasm into which it was about to step, and the conclusion, which the enthusiastic Democrats jumped at, that the old man, expressing the sentiments which he did, was bound to come out for Bryan, was reasonable. But the old Massachusetts man is now industriously giving reasons why McKinley, and consequently, "imperialism," should be continued. And so it goes. There has not been a creditable recruit from the Republican party so far. In this respect the biggest Republicans are like their colored North Carolina coadjutors.

Judge A. C. Avery is taking a very serious view of our Senatorial campaign. He says it is absorbing the interest of the real elections, the presidential and congressional tickets. The Judge is so much impressed with this idea that he has called for the assent of the four candidates to postpone the senatorial primaries till after the election, say the first Thursday in December. He believes it was a mistake to hold the primaries in connection with the election, and fears the consequences of this sharp contest between the friends of the aspirants. The time is short and if such action be taken it must be done quickly. It may be a wise suggestion but can hardly be consumated.—Concord Standard.

We all know what it is to take our medicine and we'd as well proceed to do it in this instance without passing around regrets of what might have been. We have the primary now, and later on will be time enough to consider means of turning it loose.

Mr. W. J Peele, of Raleigh, writes the Times, of that place, suggesting that a special day be set apart for the study of some prominent event in North Carolina history, and that on that date every school in the State devote the entire day to a study of this bit of history so that it will become thoroughly impressed on the minds of the pupils and will be presented to them in such an attractive way that it will increase their patriotism and State pride. This is most certainly a good idea. If it could not be carried out over the whole State the different counties might adopt it. We know too little of our own history and are fast knowing less.

Chairman Hanna announced yesterday that he would give a week more to making speeches. This is mighty hard on poor Mr. McKinley.

The brethren of the North Carolina Press Association who have just returned from the trip to Niagara Falls have to thank Secretary John B. Sherrill, of Concord, for a most pleasant and profitable week. His planning and execution of the journey were successful in every way and offered the members a rare opportunity to see this great world-wonder.

A HORSE TAKES A RUN.

Greensboro is probably the greatest place on earth for runaway horses, though it is not often that any damage is done. A runaway occurred late yesterday afternoon, however, which was an exception to the rule.

A horse hitched to the L. Richardson Drug Company's dray became excited and started up South Elm street at a breakneck speed. Before going far it collided with a carriage belonging to Mr. Charlie Carl, wrecking the latter vehicle and injuring the driver, who was struck on the head. Becoming detached from the dray, the horse proceeded up the street, dragging a shaft after him, to the imminent danger of pedestrians and other vehicles. In front of J. W. Scott & Co.'s a bicycle was knocked from under a gentleman, who luckily escaped injury.

NEWSBOY INJURED.

Is Run Over by a Truck at the Railway Station and Has a Foot Mashed.

The young son of Mr. F. F. Smith met with quite a painful accident at the Southern Railway station last evening. The young fellow is a newsboy, and along with several others, had gone to meet the southbound train to get his supply of papers. In the rush that is usual about train time a heavy truck was run over one of his feet, which was badly mashed.

The wonder is that some one is not killed at this place. There is always a large crowd about train time, and the large amount of baggage and express handled makes it dangerous to both life and limb.

THEY'LL ALL BE HERE.

The Fair is Being Extensively Advertised and an Immense Crowd Will be Here.

As was the case with Gala Week last year, the Fair is being extensively advertised and with anything like favorable weather, next week will find an immense crowd of people in Greensboro.

A gentleman who returned from Danville this morning says almost everybody over there is talking of the Fair and he heard numbers say they were coming. Another gentleman, who is just from Raleigh and Goldsboro, says many people in those places will also be here.

They're all coming.

THE NORMAL OPENS.

A Most Gratifying Attendance for the First Day.

The State Normal and Industrial College opened today under the most favorable circumstances. The opening exercises took place in the college chapel at 10 o'clock this morning.

A large number of the former students have returned, while, of course, there are many new ones. The exact number in attendanee today is not known, as matriculation has not been completed, though it is something near 350.

A New Dentist Locates in Greensboro.

Dr. E. A. Burton, a dentist formerly of Charleston, S. C., has located here for the practice of his profession. He has rented an office on the second floor of Mr. N. J. McDuffie's new building, on South Elm Street. Dr. Burton comes well recommended, both as a professional and a gentleman.

To Wed This Evening.

Mr. T. J. Wallace, of Franklin, Tenn., and Mrs. Eliza Campbell, a sister of Mrs. E. W. Smith, will be married at the residence of Rev. Dr. Smith at 6 o'clock this evening. They will leave immediately for their future home in Tennessee.

Mr. Wallace is clerk of the Superior Court in his county.

A SETTLEMENT NEAR.

The United States Sees Indications That the Chinese Trouble Will be Settled Peacably.

Washington, Oct. 3—A feeling of buoyant optimism prevails among officials here today relative to the Chinese troubles that warrants the belief in the existence of a sound foundation; based on very recent developments in pending negotiations. It is evidently the conviction officially that an agreement among the powers in near at hand. However, it is not deemed well to make any public announcement of the progress of the negotiations at this stage. Although it is known that there have been several important exchanges recently, both verbally between the diplomatic represenatives of the powers here and the State Department, and through the United States representatives abroad and the governments to which they are accredited, it can be inferred only that their general tenor has been highly favorable from the satisfaction expressed by the officials.

The encouraging outlook has been brought about very largely by the harmonious sentiments which have developed between this government and Germany concerning the course of future events in China. Since the return of the Secretary, he has had several conferences with Baron Sheck Von Sternberg, the German charge d'affaires, which have been of such a character as to show that the purpose of the two governments were very much alike, and that, whatever might have been contemplated, they were now proceeding toward a common end for the solution of the entire difficulty.

The Berlin government received several days ago the Sheng dispatch, giving the Chinese edict for the severe punishment of Prince Tuan and his associates. This was accepted at the highest German quarters as a sincere evidence that China was disposed now to deal with the responsible parties as their offenses deserved. It also developed the sentiment that a declaration of war against China would be needless and that a solution of the problem could be secured through pacific channels. Altogether the outlook is more satisfactory than at any time heretofore, not only for concurrent action by the powers, but also for a comprehensive settlement of the entire Chinese question.

NAVAL STATION APPROVED.

Sharp Dispute Between Naval Officers Over the Puget Sound Plant Settled.

There has been a row among naval officers over the equipment of the torpedo boat Goldsborough, which was built by a Portland (Ore.) firm. Rear Admiral Hichborn, chief constructor of the navy, was anxious to have the boat equipped for service at the Puget Sound naval station. The other members of the board of construction, to which board the question was submitted, recommended the boat be sent to San Francisco.

Hichborn took the position that there was a great deal of work remaining at the Mare Island navy yard, which is near San Francisco, and that it could not be possible to fit the Goldsborough out at that yard. After some considerable controversy over the matter Secretary Long directed the Goldsborough to be sent to Puget Sound station, where the torpedo boat Rowan has just been fitted out for service.

Some of the officers who were beaten in this discussion secured telegraphic orders from the navy department detailing Capt. Henry Glass to make an inspection of the Rowan and the facilities at the Puget Sound station for doing such work. The assignment of Capt. Glass to this duty was a surprise to the bureau of construction, and the charge is now made that there has been some underhanded work on the part of high naval officers to secure an official report, the tenor of which was expected to show that the Rowan was in a bad way and the Puget Sound station in an inadequate condition. Capt. Glass' report has been received in Washington, and it shows not only that the Rowan was fully and properly equipped, but that the Puget Sound station is in every way adapted to a high grade of naval work, including the docking of the largest vessels of the service.

CHASED BY A CINNAMON BEAR

Robert Martin, a well-known hunter and cattleman of Archuleta county, Col., arrived at Denver the other day and related an experience that he had just passed through with a big cinnamon bear. Martin was with a Rio Grand section gang in Cumbres pass repairing ties and traveling by means of a handcar. Work had hardly commenced before a little cinnamon bear appeared in search of its mother. The men captured the cub after strategic moves and tied him to the handcar, which was put on the track. He immediately commenced to howl for the dam, and in a few minutes a big, lean, lank mother made her appearance and started for her cub with blood in her eye. The men immediately rushed the car toward the down grade and started to work, with the bear ten feet behind. The harder the men worked the faster the bear ran, and Martin, who was sitting with his feet hanging over the rear of the car had one shoe torn off by her claws in a sudden spurt. Another jump and the dam almost made the car, but fell, but was on her feet in a moment. For three miles the bear chased the car on a down grade and was only stopped by a gulch trestle. The cub remained the section men's trophy.

Fashion's Picture

Changes so often. Come here when you will and you'll see the world of textiles as in popular favor at the moment. So quickly come the new conceptions of fashion that many exquiste things are here and gone before other stores get them. This is the reason the mere mention of our name commands attention, because it implies an association with the newest and choicest merchandise offerings on earth. As is so often said, we are first in style, first in quality, and first in the hearts of our citizens. To keep the people posted about the values we receive almost hourly during the day, so that all might have an equal showing, why, we would be forced to issue an extra bulletin. It is wise, therefore, and to your benefit, to do as your neighbors do—come early and often. No telling what a day may bring forth, or at what hour an extra freight train will pull in at the station and unload a cargo of goods for us. Here today and gone tomorrow—this is the way we handle HOT STUFF.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.

2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.

3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

The latest official report on lunacy in Ireland shows that mental disorders are still increasing there. The aggregate number of patients treated in the hospitals for mental diseases is the highest on record, whereas the estimated population is the lowest in recent years. The average number of the insane per 100,000 of the population has increased from 250 in 1880 to 460 in 1899. Consumption caused 28.4 per cent. of the deaths in hospitals for the insane.

Mark Twain does not enjoy travelling. It seems that when asked about a recent voyage he replied: "I do it for the sake of my family. If I had my way I'd settle in one spot and never move. In fact, I can't understand how any writer can be persuaded to move of his own accord. Old Bunyan was in luck when they threw him into prison. If I had been in his place they'd never have got me out."

He thinks that there will be time enough to put pianos in the Southern schools for negroes when the pupils and their parents shall have learned more about thrift, economy, savings bank accounts, decent homes, horticulture, the trade of dairying, farming, etc.

W. L. Taylor, who makes the finest pictures that appear in The Ladies' Home Journal, leads the ideal life that every artists dreams of. He neither seeks nor accepts work from any one. He has an agreed income from the Philadelphia magazine, and as this is a generous amount he has nothing in the way of finances to worry him. He lives in an artistic home at Wellesley, Mass., in the top story of which is his studio. His work is carefully laid out for him by his editor for an entire year in advance, and he works at it only when he feels at his best. Otherwise, he paddles in his canoe or walks. He has no time imposed upon him when his work shall be turned in.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incideat, of which Mr John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one snould fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

ABBEY'S MEDICAL TALKS

are Nature's warning. Something is wrong with the digestion. Constipation is present. There are many reasons for this condition, but there is only one absolute, immediate cure—Abbey's Salt. To cure headache effectively the cause must be removed. The system must be cleaned out. The hard, discarded matter in the bowels must be disposed of. ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT SALT does this. It does it mildly and thoroughly. It relieves the pressure of the blood upon the brain. This cures the headache. It keeps the bowels and liver active. This gives good digestion and good blood; and prevents other headaches. The regular use of Abbey's Salt will put you on the road to good health and will keep you there.

If a bottle of Abbey's Salt prevents only one attack of headache, its cost is repaid with interest.

WHAT RUSSIA REALLY IS.

A Vast Realm Whose People Are Destined to Make World's History.

Henry Norman, in Scribner's.

What is Russia? The unfettered, irresponsible, limitless, absolute rule of one man over a hundred millions of his fellows—is that it? The ikon in the corner of every room where the language is spoken, the blue-domed basilica in every street of great cities, the long-haired priests, chanting in deep bass; the pedestrain, ceasingly crossing himself; the holy synod, whose God-given task is to coerce or cajole a heathen world to orthordoxy—is that Russia? Or is it the society of the capital speaking all languages, familiar with all literatures, practicing of every art, lapped in every luxury, esteeming manners more highly than morals? Or is it the vast and nearly roadless country, where settlements are in distances like fly specks to window panes; where the conveniences, the comforts and decencies of civilization may be sought in vain outside the towns and away from the lines of railway; where entire villages are the prey of unnamable disease; where seven people out of every ten can neither read nor write?

Siberia is Russia—5,000,000 square miles, in whicn whole countries are a quivering carpet of wild flowers in spring, a rolling grain field in autumn, an ice-bound waste in winter, stored full of every mineral, crossed by the longest railway in the world, and chiefly inhabited by a population of convicts and exiles.

Central Asia is Russia—a million and a half of square miles of barren desert and irrigated oasis, the most famous cities of Asia and the greatest river, a few years ago the hotbed of Mussulman fanaticism, probably the cradle of the human race, and possibly the scene of its most fateful conflict.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

EDITOR'S AWFUL PLIGHT.

F. M. Higgins, Editor Seneca, (Ill.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. It's the surest pile cure on earth and the best Salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

SORES AND ULCERS.

Sores and Ulcers never become chronic unless the blood is in poor condition—is sluggish, weak and unable to throw off the poisons that accumulate in it. The system must be relieved of the unhealthy matter through the sore, and great danger to life would follow should it heal before the blood has been made pure and healthy and all impurities eliminated from the system. S.S.S. begins the cure by first cleansing and invigorating the blood, building up the general health and removing from the system all morbid, effete matter. A CONSTANT DRAIN UPON THE SYSTEM. When this has been accomplished the discharge gradually ceases, and the sore or ulcer heals. It is the tendency of these old indolent sores to grow worse and worse, and eventually to destroy the bones. Local applications, while soothing and to some extent alleviate pain, cannot reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does, and no matter how apparently hopeless your condition, even though your constitution has broken down, it will bring relief when nothing else can. It supplies the rich, pure blood necessary to heal the sore and nourish the debilitated, diseased body.

Mr. J. B. Talbert, Lock Box 245, Winona, Miss., says: "Six years ago my leg from the knee to the foot was one solid sore. Several physicians treated me and I made two trips to Hot Springs, but found no relief. I was induced to try S. S. S., and it made a complete cure. I have been a perfectly well man ever since."

S.S.S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known—contains no poisonous minerals to ruin the digestion and add to, rather than relieve your sufferings. If your flesh does not heal readily when scratched, bruised or cut, your blood is in bad condition, and any ordinary sore is apt to become chronic.

Send for our free book and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge for this service.

Gen. Carr Here.

Gen. Julian S. Carr was here a short while this morning enroute to Hickory, where he is billed to make a speech. While waiting for the train at the station he was surrounded by a small group of friends who were interested to know that the General's prospects of election to the Senate grow brighter as the days go by.

THE LATEST AILMENT.

It Is Electro-Fanitis, or a Sneezing Cold, Caused by the Electric Fan.

A brand-new hot weather ailment has whirled into existence, says the Philadelphia North American.

It is electro-fanitis. Perhaps you have got it, as no class is immune.

It is almost epidemic in Philadelphia. If you are a victim hurry to a physician or drug store and ask for a powerful anti-phlogistic remedy. That is, something to relieve inflammation of the mucous membrane of the head, which is what electro-fanitis is.

This name, by the way, has been agreed upon by eminent medico-philologists. The affix "itis," meaning "inflammation," was selected because it is the term which of late years has been applied to all new inflammatory ailments. It may be pronouced either e-tis, like e in each, or i-tis, like i in idol.

Unless promptly cured electro-fanitis may develop into the two other diseases of the same family—tonsilitis and bronchitis.

The victims of the new ailment include bankers, merchants, clerks, stenographers, barbers, and in fact every class of people who perform indoor work, where electric fans are in operation. Patrons of restaurants, upon whose heads the artificial breeze generators are played while they eat, also form a large proportion of the sufferers.

Physicians report that the majority of complaints come from barbers, who stand for hours at a time under the whirring fans. Many of their customers are also affected. Among the city officers dozens of cases exist.

The most distressing and annoying characteristic of electro-fanitis is that it is never contracted except in hot weather, and there is nothing more distressing than a summer cold. Being caused by artificial atmospheric conditions, it is much more difficult to cure than an ordinary cold.

"The principal reason why the air currents produced by electric fans so readily cause inflammation of the mucous membrane of the head is that the drafts are sudden and easily impress the system of the patient, whose vitality has already been lowered by the heat.

"Then these currents of air are not the fresh waves of ozone which are in circulation outdoors. The artificial breezes are nothing but impure air forced into motion. A steady blowing wind at the seashore would not affect the membrane, whereas the whirling electric breezes cause inflammation. The patient who is suffering from the latter cause ought to secure prompt treatment. Teh coal tar preparations are about the best remedy."
